A NOTE ON FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report may contain forward-looking statements that reflect our current expectations or forecasts of future events. Forward-looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or include words such as "expects", "anticipates", "intends", "plans", "believes", "estimates", "preliminary", "typical" and other similar expressions. In addition, these statements may relate to future corporate actions, future financial performance of a fund or a security and their future investment strategies and prospects. Forward-looking statements are inherently subject to, among other things, risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual events, results, performance or prospects to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, these forward-looking statements. These risks, uncertainties and assumptions include, without limitation, general economic, political and market factors in North America and internationally, interest and foreign exchange rates, the volatility of global equity and capital markets, business competition, technological change, changes in government regulations, changes in securities laws and regulations, changes in tax laws, unexpected judicial or regulatory proceedings, catastrophic events, outbreaks of disease or pandemics (such as COVID-19), and the ability of Mackenzie to attract or retain key employees. The foregoing list of important risks, uncertainties and assumptions is not exhaustive. Please consider these and other factors carefully and do not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements.

The forward-looking information contained in this report is current only as of the date of this report. There should not be an expectation that such information will in all circumstances be updated, supplemented or revised whether as a result of new information, changing circumstances, future events or otherwise.

MACKENZIE GOLD BULLION FUND

ANNUAL MANAGEMENT REPORT OF FUND PERFORMANCE | For the Year Ended March 31, 2023

Management Discussion of Fund Performance

June 5, 2023

This Management Discussion of Fund Performance presents the portfolio management team's view on the significant factors and developments that have affected the Fund's performance and outlook in the year ended March 31, 2023 (the "period"). If the Fund was established during the period, "period" represents the period since inception.

In this report, "Mackenzie" and "the Manager" refer to Mackenzie Financial Corporation, the manager of the Fund. In addition, net asset value ("NAV") refers to the value of the Fund as calculated for transaction purposes, on which the discussion of Fund performance is based.

Please read A Note on Forward-Looking Statements on the first page of this document.

Investors holding securities of Mackenzie Gold Bullion Class were merged into the corresponding series of the Fund on a tax-deferred basis on July 30, 2021. Consequently the information in this report is presented as if the Fund had existed since the inception of Mackenzie Gold Bullion Class.

Investment Objective and Strategies

The Fund seeks long-term capital growth by investing primarily in unencumbered, fully allocated gold bullion and permitted gold certificates. The Fund may also invest a portion of its assets in cash, money market instruments and/or treasury bills.

Risk

The risks of the Fund remain as discussed in the Fund's Simplified Prospectus.

The Fund is suitable for medium- to long-term investors looking for a gold fund to hold as part of their portfolio, who can handle the volatility of gold prices and who have a medium tolerance for risk. Before September 29, 2022, the Fund was deemed suitable for investors who had a medium to high tolerance for risk.

Results of Operations

Investment Performance

The performance of all series in the current and previous periods is shown in the Past Performance section of the report. Performance will vary by series primarily because fees and expenses differ between series, or because securities of a series were not issued and outstanding for the entire reporting period. Please refer to the Fund Formation and Series Information section of this report for the varying management and administration fees payable by each series. The following comparison to market indices is intended to help investors understand the Fund's performance relative to the general performance of the markets. However, the Fund's mandate may be different from that of the indices shown.

During the period, the Fund's Series A securities returned 7.4% (after deducting fees and expenses paid by the series). This compares with a return of -5.2% for the Fund's broad-based index, the S&P/TSX Composite Index, and the gold bullion spot price return of 10.0% in Canadian dollar terms. All index and series returns are calculated on a total return basis in Canadian dollar terms. Investors cannot invest in an index or in gold bullion without incurring fees, expenses and commissions, which are not reflected in their returns.

Despite volatility, the price of gold ended the period with a gain of more than 10% in Canadian dollar terms. Investor expectations later in the period that central banks could lower interest rates in 2023 or early 2024 caused gold to rally and the U.S. dollar to weaken. Canadian dollar weakness also contributed to gains for gold in Canadian dollar terms as the Bank of Canada paused its cycle of policy rate increases in March, in advance of most other global central banks.

The Fund outperformed the broad-based index because of its exposure to gold bullion. Given the Fund's mandate, the return of the gold bullion spot price is a more meaningful comparison.

The difference in performance between the Fund and the gold bullion spot price resulted primarily from management fees and other operating expenses.

Over the period, neither portfolio activity nor market developments significantly changed the positioning of the Fund.

Net Assets

The Fund's net assets decreased by 26.9% during the period to $268.0 million. This change was composed primarily of $12.8 million in net income (including any interest and/or dividend income) from investment performance, after deducting fees and expenses, and a decrease of $111.3 million due to net securityholder activity (including sales, redemptions and cash distributions).

Fees and Expenses

The management expense ratio ("MER") for each series during the year ended March 31, 2023, was generally lower than the MER for the year ended March 31, 2022, due to a decrease in fund costs. Total expenses paid vary from period to period mainly as a result of changes in average assets in each series. The MER for Series D also decreased due to a decrease in the management fee rate effective April 4, 2022, as noted in the Fund Formation and Series Information section of the report. The MERs for all series are presented in the Financial Highlights section of this report.

Recent Developments

In the portfolio management team's view, inflation will likely remain elevated due to deglobalization, the transition away from fossil fuels and a tight labour market caused by aging workers and the pandemic. Neither the U.S. Federal Reserve nor financial market participants have experienced higher-than-expected inflation for many decades, which raises the possibility of policy error and substantial market volatility. Due to society's desire for economic recovery and reduced inequality, the team believes there is a high probability that central banks will prematurely end the current rate-increasing cycle and inflation will remain higher than current market consensus, which would be very constructive for gold and other hard assets.

Effective March 31, 2023, KPMG LLP was appointed as the auditor of the Fund.

Related Party Transactions

Management and Administration Services

For each applicable series, the Fund paid management fees and administration fees to the Manager at the annual rates specified under Fund Formation and Series Information in this report and as more fully described in the Prospectus. In return for the administration fees, the Manager pays all costs and expenses (other than certain specified fund costs) required to operate the Fund that are not included in management fees. See also Management Fees.

Other Related Party Transactions

Investment funds managed by Mackenzie and its affiliates may invest in the Fund. All these investments are made on a prospectus-exempt basis in accordance with the investment objectives of those funds. At March 31, 2023, funds managed by Mackenzie owned 33.9% of the Fund's NAV, funds managed by I.G. Investment Management, Ltd. owned 11.8% of the Fund's NAV, and funds managed by The Canada Life Assurance Company and Canada Life Investment Management Ltd. owned less than 0.1% of the Fund's NAV. All related party transactions are based on the NAV per security on each transaction day. As a result of these investments, the Fund may be subject to large transaction risk as discussed in the Prospectus.

MACKENZIE GOLD BULLION FUND

ANNUAL MANAGEMENT REPORT OF FUND PERFORMANCE | For the Year Ended March 31, 2023

Mackenzie manages this risk to reduce the possibility of any adverse effect on the Fund or on its investors, through such processes as requiring advance notice of large redemptions.

The Manager relied on an approval provided by the Mackenzie Funds' Independent Review Committee to appoint KPMG LLP as the auditor of the Fund, effective March 31, 2023.

Past Performance

The Fund's past performance information is presented in the following charts and table. It assumes all distributions made by the Fund in the periods presented are reinvested in additional securities of the relevant series of the Fund. The charts and table do not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or optional charges, or income taxes payable by any investor that would have reduced returns. The past performance of the Fund is not necessarily an indication of how it will perform in the future.

If you hold this Fund outside of a registered plan, income and capital gains distributions paid to you increase your income for tax purposes whether paid to you in cash or reinvested in additional securities of the Fund. The amount of reinvested taxable distributions is added to the adjusted cost base of the securities that you own. This would decrease your capital gain or increase your capital loss when you later redeem from the Fund, thereby ensuring that you are not taxed on this amount again. Please consult your tax advisor regarding your personal tax situation.

The past performance before July 30, 2021, is based on the performance of the applicable series of Mackenzie Gold Bullion Class, which was merged into the corresponding series of the Fund on that date.

Year-by-Year Returns

The following bar charts present the performance of each series of the Fund for each of the fiscal periods shown. The charts show, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on the first day of each fiscal period, or on the series inception or reinstatement date, as applicable, would have increased or decreased by the last day of the fiscal period presented. Series inception or reinstatement dates can be found under Fund Formation and Series Information.

Annual Compound Returns

The following table compares the historical annual compound total returns for each series of the Fund with the relevant index or indices shown below for each of the periods ended March 31, 2023. Investors cannot invest in an index without incurring fees, expenses and commissions, which are not reflected in these performance figures.

All index returns are calculated in Canadian dollars on a total return basis, meaning that all dividend payments, interest income accruals and interest payments are reinvested.

The S&P/TSX Composite Index is a capitalization weighted index that represents some of the largest float adjusted stocks trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange.

Gold bullion returns are calculated from the spot price of gold in Canadian dollars as fixed daily at 5 p.m. ET by Bloomberg Financial L.P.

- (1) The percentage return differs for each series because the management fee rate and expenses differ for each series.
- (2) The return since inception for each series will differ when the inception date differs and is only provided when a series has been active for a period of less than 10 years.
- (3) The return of the S&P/TSX Composite Index since inception for each applicable series is as follows: Series CL 5.0%, Series D 7.0%, Series FB 8.4%, Series IG 5.3%, Series PW 7.8%, Series PWFB 7.6%, Series PWX 7.7%.
- (4) The return of gold bullion since inception for each applicable series is as follows: Series CL 9.7%, Series D 6.6%, Series FB 7.7%, Series IG 12.6%, Series PW 7.4%, Series PWFB 8.0%, Series PWX 8.2%.

- These calculations are prescribed by securities regulations and are not intended to be a reconciliation between opening and closing net assets per security. This information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements. The net assets per security presented in the financial statements may differ from the net asset value per security calculated for fund pricing purposes. An explanation of these differences, if any, can be found in the Notes to Financial Statements.
- Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of securities outstanding at the relevant time. The increase/decrease from operations is based on the weighted average number of securities outstanding over the fiscal period.
- Distributions were paid in cash/reinvested in additional securities of the Fund, or both.

- (1) This information is provided as at the end of the fiscal period shown.
- (2) Management expense ratio ("MER") is based on total expenses, excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, income taxes and withholding taxes, for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period, except as noted. In the period a series is established, the MER is annualized from the date of inception to the end of the period. Where the Fund directly invests in securities of another fund (including exchange-traded funds or "ETFs"), the MERs presented for the Fund include the portion of MERs of the other fund(s) attributable to this investment. Any income distributions received from ETFs managed by affiliates of the Manager, with the intention of offsetting fees paid within those ETFs but which are not considered to be duplicative fees under regulatory requirements, are treated as waived expenses for MER purposes. The Manager may waive or absorb operating expenses at its discretion and stop waiving or absorbing such expenses at any time without notice.
- (3) The trading expense ratio ("TER") represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs incurred as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period. Where the Fund invests in securities of another fund (including ETFs), the TERs presented for the Fund include the portion of TERs of the other fund(s) attributable to this investment.
- (4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher the Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund. The portfolio turnover rate is not provided when the Fund is less than one year old. The value of any trades to realign the Fund's portfolio after a fund merger, if any, is excluded from the portfolio turnover rate.
- (5) This number has been updated because it was incorrectly presented in the Management Report of Fund Performance for the year ended March 31, 2022.

MACKENZIE GOLD BULLION FUND

Management Fees

The management fee for each applicable series is calculated and accrued daily as a percentage of its NAV. The Fund's management fees were used by the Manager to pay for the costs of managing the investment portfolio of the Fund and/or the underlying fund(s), as applicable, including providing investment analysis and recommendations, making investment decisions, making brokerage arrangements for the purchase and sale of the investment portfolio, and providing other services. The Manager also used the management fees to fund sales commissions, trailing commissions and any other compensation (collectively "distribution-related payments") to registered dealers and brokers whose clients invest in the Fund.

The following dealers affiliated with the Manager may be entitled to distribution-related payments from the Manager on the same basis as unrelated registered brokers and dealers: IPC Securities Corporation, Investors Group Securities Inc., IPC Investment Corporation and Investors Group Financial Services Inc.

The Manager used approximately 42% of the total management fee revenues received from all Mackenzie funds during the period to fund distribution-related payments to registered dealers and brokers. In comparison, such distribution-related payments for the Fund represented on average 40% of the management fees paid by all applicable series of the Fund during the period. The actual percentage for each series may be higher or lower than the average depending on the level of trailing commissions and sales commissions paid for that series.
